THE SOLUTION.

The solid shadow of a doubt
Shuts hell within; bars heaven out;
Prisoners, with Death alone,
Tremble, dreading the unknown.
But faith, a solid shaft of light,
Bridges the gulf; in plain in sight
The free, eternal life above;
My heart sings, knowing God is love.
Stokely S. Fisher.

CRISIS FACED

Congress and President At Loggerheads Over Foreign Policy and Germany Reaches Limit of Concessions—War May Follow Unless Congress Intervenes.

Washington, February 23.—President Wilson and Congress, facing a genuine crisis with Germany, are at loggerheads tonight on the question of policy. The situation is unprecedented. Never before in the history of the United States has there been an occasion when the executive head of the nation and Congress have been so widely apart on a matter of such immediate gravity. As a climax to a day of chaos the German reply to the latest demands of the United States reached Washington tonight. It is understood to be very unsatisfactory.
The President has told the leaders of Congress that he is determined to force an "immediate showdown" with the Teutonic allies and has warned them that he will not tolerate any interference with his handling of international situation. Congress is equally determined that American ships shall be warned off armed merchantmen, totally in defiance of the President's express wishes. Administrative advisers and the leaders in Congress are in a state of uncertainty opposite to the possibility of concerted action. No one of them is willing to predict what tomorrow will bring forth.

A few outstanding points are:
Senator Stone, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, and the spokesman in the Senate for the administration, told his colleagues that the President would take as a personal affront any legislation regarding the submarine issue.

Representative Flood, chairman of the House foreign committee, will tell the President tomorrow morning that a powerful group in Congress, probably a majority of both Houses, is opposed to his plan of forcing Germany to admit the right of neutrals to travel on armed ships.

Majority leader Kitchin declared that if the President proposed to force Germany into war, he could not count on the support of Congress.

At the White House it was announced that Senator Stone, at the request of the President, will not make his intended speech in reply to Ethel Root's attack on the administration.
Germany's attitude, it is understood, is that its earlier reply to this government's now needed to every demand made by the United States, including the substitution of the word
"recognize" for "assume" liability.
This reply, it is said, is Germany's last word so far as the Lusitania issue is concerned.

GREATEST BATTLE OF THE WAR NOW ON BEFORE FRENCH LINES.

London, February 23.—Led by the Crown Prince, 250,000 Germans are attacking the French on a front of twenty-five miles in a colossal smash for the great fortress of Verdun.

They have broken through the French lines on a front of ten miles to a depth of two miles and are within eight miles of the fortress. The village of Naumont is in German hands.

French and English view it as the last tremendous effort of the Germans, which, if it fails, will condemn them to a shuddering defensive on every front.
The losses on both sides are counted in the tens of thousands, according to all accounts. The attacks are being made by picked troops, veterans of Russia and the Balkans, men who took part in the first great smash at Paris which carried to the Marne.

ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

The Washington a la carte banquet given Tuesday evening at the First Baptist church by the G. A. and Y.
W. A. societies, was a very unique and enjoyable affair, those present pronouncing it one of the most successful social events of the season.

The program was carried out in its entirety. All the numbers were exceedingly well rendered and thoroughly appreciated.

The Girls' Auxiliary and the Young Women's Auxiliary, with their capable leader, Mrs. L. H. Vande, certainly deserve great credit and are entitled to the unstinted praise showered upon them by their guests.

The societies request us to express their appreciation of the kindness of all those who took part in the program or otherwise lent their assistance in giving the banquet.

NEVER FRIES DARK

In preparing bacon for your breakfast, it should be noticed that "PARTRIDGE" Bacon, even though done to a turn, will retain its rich, golden color. This is one of the distinctions of "PARTRIDGE" Bacon, in that its very appearance on your breakfast table, crisp, tender, golden brown and piping hot, will arouse and stimulate the most sluggish appetite. So perfect is the cure of the "PARTRIDGE" Bacon, that it can never fry dark. Order a pound today.

FALSE POSTAL ECONOMY REBUKED.

If there is one governmental department to the exclusion of all other Federal agencies where penny-saving economy should not be exercised, that department is the big machine which handles the United States mails.

Every day one finds evidence of a crippled postal service. Here in Central Kentucky, with good business men like Postmaster Kaufman in the executive and supervisory positions, the postal service seems to be in the lowest point of efficiency that it has suffered in many years.

This unfortunate state of affairs is due, in a large measure, to the policy of cutting down clerical forces in the larger towns and cities and the reduction of the facilities for transporting the mail by railroad. The government, it is true, has been compelled to operate under falling revenues, which is the result of the revision in the taxing system which the Democrats put into effect when they got into power, but a department which is as close to the people and as intimately related to commerce as the Postoffice Department it should certainly be the last to feel the willing effect of enforced economy.

More unfortunate still, in the face of the attempt to save money in the postal service, unwise experiments seem to have been made which further tended to demoralize the system of distributing the mail. The Philadelphia Inquirer of recent date, discussing this phase of the subject, said:

"Congressman Grist of Pennsylvania, announces that the postoffice bill, as reported to the House, permanently establishes the village mail delivery system with which experiments have been made during the past four years. By this plan there is a regular mail delivery in towns of less than ten thousand population, that apply for this privilege to the department and comply with the regulations that have been prescribed. It is a move in the right direction, and scores of thriving towns in Pennsylvania will profit by the innovation. It is interesting to note that in drafting the postoffice bill the committee actually gave the department more than it asked for next year, but he purpose in doing this was to rebuke the Postmaster General and his assistants for their false and undesirable economies."

"The trouble with the present management of the postoffice business, like so many of the other branches of the Wilson administration, is that there has been an attempt to mix politics and undemocratic theories with what should be a purely business concern. It may be said truthfully that politics have always have more or less to do with this important branch of the government. This must be admitted, but when an attempt was made to add foolish theories to the political bond it was more than the system could bear, and so we have chaos and disorder to such an extent that the Democratic majority in Congress feels called upon to ignore the recommendations of the Democratic Postmaster General. The truth of the matter is that Mr. Barleson is about as poorly equipped for the management of the Postoffice Department as Mr. Daniels is for the Navy and Mr. Redfield for the Department of Commerce. They are all amiable men, educated along certain lines, but they have blundered hopelessly in their various experiments and in politics, as has been well said, a blunder is akin to a crime."

"Fortunately, the Postoffice Committee of Congress has halted part of the cheese-paring plan of the department. In the railway mail and the rural free delivery branches of the service the conditions are demoralizing and it has been openly charged on the floor of Congress that this has been caused by the desire of the department to save a few dollars, even if by doing so there would be an impairment of the service. Complaints come from all parts of the country, but what of that if the Postmaster General can assure the people that he has succeeded in saving them some money? Some day we may have an efficient, business management of a public service, which this year will spend $320,000,000. But it is idle to suppose that it can be brought about by curtailing the privileges of the patrons of the office who pay this enormous bill."—Lexington Herald.

If a show troupe should come along and advertise a free performance the people would jam the hall and line up a hundred deep outside the door. And yet the door of every church is open Sundays and the show is infinitely better than that of any troupe that travels the road.

PLAYING POLITICS

Some Surprising Juggling Under Way
By the Democrats in Judicial Districts.

(Lexington Leader.)

The influence of Democratic party politics in the judicial affairs of the state is being quite openly shown in the bills now before the General Assembly to change some of the legislative districts of the state. Under the law a judicial district once created, may not be changed except for the creation of a new district by reason of the increase of court business which makes a new district necessary.

This condition has been made the excuse for some surprising juggling with the state's judicial districts, in which, if all reports are true, the object is anything but the facilitation of the business of the courts affected.

The bill which has attracted the greatest interest, and which has already passed the Senate, is the one to create a new district composed of the counties of Wolfe, Morgan and Magoffin. The charge is made by prominent Democrats in the committee affected that the measure is simply a "lane duck" proposition proposed for the benefit of Judge D. W. Gardner, who was defeated in November by Judge A. T. Patrick, a Republican. The salary of Circuit Judges is $3,200 per year, and with so attractive a salary attached to the office, the chief surprise is that attempts have not been made to create twice as many districts as there are.

Would Force Two Judges To Move.

The Gardner bill, as it is popularly called in the Legislature, would force two of the present Circuit Judges to move out of their home counties, and take up new residence in the counties left in the district, giving to Judge Gardner charge of the court in his home county, although in the last election the people declined to reseat him by a majority for his opponent of over 1,100 votes.

If the proposed bill passes it will compel Judge Patrick to move out of Magoffin county, and it will also compel Judge Allen N. Cisco, who defeated Judge Redwine for Judge of the Thirty-second district, to move out of his home county of Morgan, and turn it over to the Judge of the new district. Judge Cisco has been quoted as saying that so far as the new bill serves any purpose in facilitating court business, the same might as well throw $1,200 in the river. It should be said to the credit of the Republicans in the Legislature that, while the proposed new bill will eventually increase Republican strength in the mountain districts, they oppose the present bill because of its obvious uselessness except as a political gift to Judge Gardner.

Hutchcraft Has Some Plans, Too.

There was also introduced last week a bill by Representative Hutchcraft of Paris, which bears the same earmarks of political interference in the operation of the courts. Mr. Hutchcraft was an active opponent of the candidacy of Judge Robert Stout in his race for re-election and supported Hon. Emmett Dickson of Paris. He is also an attorney, practicing in Judge Stout's court. In his three-fold capacity, a lawmaker, a lawyer and politician, Mr. Hutchcraft is seeking to remove Bourbon county from Judge Stout's district and tie it with Judge Shackelford's district, which is now composed of the counties of Clark, Bell, Madison and Jessamine. To meet the necessary requirement that judicial districts can not be changed except for the creation of a new district, the Hutchcraft bill makes changes right and left through eastern and southeastern Kentucky, winding up with a new district to be composed of Breathitt, Wolfe and Morgan. While this would leave Judge Patrick undisturbed in Magoffin county, it would still make Judge Cisco pack up and move out of Morgan, and would likewise compel Judge M. H. Adams recently elected on the Republican ticket, to move out of Breathitt county, where his reports are true, his presence and influence are greatly in demand by peace-loving people of both parties.

Rearranges Several Districts.

The Hutchcraft scheme besides creating the Thirty-sixth district, rearranges the Fourteenth, Twenty-third, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-seventh and Thirty-fourth districts as follows:

Fourteenth—Franklin, Scott and Woodford.

Twenty-third—Lee, Estill, Powell and Jackson.

Twenty-fifth—Bourbon, Clark, Madison and Jessamine.
Twenty-seventh—Laurel, Whitley and McHenry.

Thirty-fourth—Knox and Clay.

The Governor is authorized to appoint a judge and commonwealth attorney in the new thirty-sixth.

The creating of the new district will take out of the pockets of the people some $8,200 annually in salary and fees, and it will be interesting to note whether or not this condition will come within the purview of the administration's policy of retrenchment and reform and elimination of useless offices.

NEARLY HALF CENTURY

A Patient At the Brown County, O., Infirmary Has Been In Forty-eight Years.

(Georgetown News-Democrat.)

There is a patient at the Brown county infirmary, who probably holds a record that is unequalled in any other similar institution in Ohio. This person is known as "Aunt Kate" McGeehey. She is paralyzed, and has been in this condition during the forty-eight years she has been there. Despite this condition, she is apparently in the very best of health and enjoys her meals three times a day. In fact, it is said about the institution that if she finds that she is what is commonly called the least "off" in her appetite she immediately summons Superintendent Burris to inform him of her discovery. She must be helped to and from her cot each day, yet in spite of her helplessness, she keeps her cheerful disposition.

After taking a whack at the women folks for playing cards for prizes, the Scott county grand jury recommended that the colored and white prisoners in the county jail be separated, and they be given use of different bath tubs. They urged that the conditions be changed at once, even if the Pleistocene Court must borrow the money, or else "turn the prisoners out."

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave

Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Caron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

WHEN PA BEGINS TO SHAVE.

When Sunday mornin' came around
My Pa hung up his strop
An' took his razor out an' made
It go c'drop! c'drop!
An' then he got his mug an' brush,
An' yelled to me, "Behave!"
I tell you, things was mighty still—
When Pa began to shave.
Then Pa he'd stir his brush around,
An' make the soap suds fly;
An' sometimes when he stirred too hard
He got some in his eye.
I tell you, it was funny then
To see Pa stamp and rave;
But they never ketched me latfin'—
When Pa began to shave.

VICTORY SWEET

For Suffragists in New York Assembly—But It Did Not Last Long.

Albany, N. Y., February 22.—Suffrage scored a victory in the state Assembly here today but sustained a temporary setback in the Senate. By a vote of 11 to 2 the Assembly Judiciary committee reported favorably the Breckinridge bill, introduced at the request of the woman's suffrage party which is designed to bring about another referendum on the suffrage question at the general election in 1917. The Judiciary committee of the Senate after considering a companion measure for more than two hours, deferred action on it for two weeks.

Suffragettes Curry Maryland Senate.
Annapolis, Md., February 22.—Woman's suffrage won a victory in the Senate today by a vote of 17 to 10. The measure is pending in the House and is a special order for consideration tomorrow. If passed by the House and approved by the Governor the question will be submitted to the voters of Maryland in the form of a constitutional amendment.

SWIPED THE "GREASES"

Close Call For the Old Family Cat at a West Second Street Residence Tuesday.

"Greases" used to be a sort of luxury. Some of our older brothers can probably recall the lovely times they have had at home playing England-Germany with the other brothers and sisters to see who would get the bacon rind.

And they also know how careful mother was too not to forget to cook the rind for the dear children, while some fond mothers would tie it to the wrist of the baby in order that it might use it for a "greaser," and it certainly was in a class by itself when applied in this way.

But nowadays things have changed, and the festive bacon rind is a sort of bluish on your fair name if you would mention it in social circles. Consequently not much attention is paid to it, otherwise than as a sort of east-off.

Tuesday the old family cat of a West Second street residence strayed into a nearby grocery and got hold of a piece of rind that had been cut off and laid carelessly aside.

Of course, the cat got busy on the rind and managed to get about half of it down its throat and then the fun began to fly. It could not get it down any further and it would not come out, and the numerous new stunts that cat pulled off was a caution.

When the man of the house arrived home he found the cat about ready to give up the ninth life and he yanked the rind out, relieving the suffering animal as well as giving it a good "greasing."

CHAPLIN FUNNY AS HE TRIES TO BE SERIOUS.

New York, February 22.—The Hippodrome was packed to the roof with 500 people seated on the stage—thousands were turned away—Sunday night to see Charlie Chaplin in the flesh. The receipts were more than $100,000, half of which will go to the Actors' Fund. Without the funny little moustache and the crooked little cane and the black baggy trousers, wearing instead a dinner coat, Chaplin walked on the stage; and although, as he said, he "tried to be serious," he was as funny as ever, and brought down the house whatever he did.

Tom Wise introduced him and forgot his name, and had to hunt all over his expansive waistcoat before he could find it. Then the movie comedian came out and put Sousa's band through "The Post and Present" overture in spirited fashion, and followed it up with a composition of his own called "The Peace Patrol." He was vociferously applauded for nearly five minutes, with every man in the band joining and then he made a little speech.

"Thank you," said Chaplin. "If I could talk like Tom Wise, I'd give up motion pictures at once, but I can't, and I'm scared to death at this very minute with stage fright."

That was all there was to it, yet everybody was satisfied.

MANY INDICTMENTS IN HARDINSBURG.

Elizabethtown, Ky., February 22.—Following Judge Layman's vigorous charge to the grand jury at Hardinsburg regarding election offenses, about 200 indictments were returned by that body.

The nature of these indictments, however, has not been divulged though it is reported that a number of them were in connection with alleged election offenses. It was also stated that there were some indictments for gambling. This is the largest number of indictments ever returned in this section at one time.

WHERE IS OUR STREET FLUSHER?

On West Second street from Sutton to Wall, can be seen as nice a display of fruits and vegetables as you would wish. Fifteen feet further away a street can be seen in such condition that it is a disgrace to any city. Other portions of the brick streets are just as bad. What has become of the flusher? Is the driver sick again or has the flusher gone into winter quarters, or our city fathers awaiting the downpour from the heavens? How long, oh, how long, will a suffering public have to wait for the flusher and the sweeper?

Ironton, O., February 22.—The Lawrence County Republican Central Committee met this afternoon and adopted resolutions endorsing Senator Theodore Burton for President, Harry M. Daugherty for Senator and commending the work of Senator Harding. The county was redistricted for delegates, nine to be chosen.

LAFOLLETTE TOSSES HAT INTO CIRCLE.

Madison, Wis., February 22.—Before a conference of Progressive Republicans from various parts of Wisconsin, Senator Robert M. LaFollette, tonight announced his candidacy for the presidency.

"I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for President in 1916," declared Senator LaFollette. "I believe that patriotic Progressive Republicans are at this time under the highest moral obligation to contest every foot of ground in every state in the Union for representation in the Chicago convention."

Senator LaFollette declared in favor of an embargo on arms; for the national manufacture of munitions of war; asserted that any standing army the government maintains instead of leading wasteful, useless lives, should in times of peace be employed in social service for the government; declared for a conference of neutral nations for early cessation of hostilities.

"One of the worst evils of the military spirit that is being fostered is that absorbs public attention to such an extent that other matters of great interest go unnoticed," the Senator asserted.

He denounced the water power bill now pending before the Senate as a bad measure; assailed the navy league propaganda and declared that the 7,000,000 Republican voters of the United States were not a willing party to what took place at the Chicago convention in 1912.

A full slate of delegates to the Chicago convention was chosen recently to go before the Wisconsin spring primaries. Announcement was made today that LaFollette delegates would be named in North Dakota.

BALLARD MILLINS, WHO SHOT MAN IN PARIS SALOON, IS KILLED BY TRAIN.

Paris, Ky., February 22.—Ballard Millins, the young railroad man who shot and killed Quincy Dye in a negro dive here Sunday morning, met swift retribution by being run over and killed by a freight train near Winchester today. Immediately after the murder he escaped and was trying to reach Loeckeste county, where a number of relatives reside. Officers from Paris went to Winchester to identify the body.

ANOTHER FEELER

From Germany On Submarines—New Note To Open Way For Discussion On Defensive Armament.

Washington, February 22.—Confidential advices from Berlin today indicate that Germany soon will inform the United States that her previous assurances that unresisting liners will not be attacked without warning hold good for further submarine operations provided, however, that such liners do not carry armament.

The German government will contend, the advices state, that what now is characterized as defensive armament really is offensive armament when submarines are concerned and will propose discussion with the United States of what defensive armament properly may be.

As none of the British and French liners now clearing from American ports carry any guns whatever such assurances from Germany will be in the nature of reassurances for the safety of the neutrals they carry, even under the terms of the new submarine campaign.

In reiterating assurances regarding the future conduct of submarine warfare, which first was given in notes from Count von Bernstorff, in the Arabic case last September, it is considered probable that the German government will state flatly that in all the previous previous negotiations it had been proceeding under the assumption that unarmed liners only were the issue and that it had always understood that the question of armed merchantmen did not enter.

NOTED SOPRANO TO BE FEATURED AT CHAUTAUQUA

Alice Nielsen, Boston and Metropolitan Opera Star, Is Booked For 1916.

SINGS ON CLOSING NIGHT

William Owen Company and Band Are Other Features of An Attractive Program.

Cities where Hedpath Chautauquas are to be held this summer will have the opportunity of hearing Alice Nielsen, prima donna soprano of the Metropolitan and Boston Opera companies. With a capable supporting company she is to travel over the entire circuit in a private car, and her appearance is announced as the concluding feature of a highly attractive seven-day program.

Another Chautauqua announcement of local interest is that the William Owen company will present "The Servant in the House." Last season this great human interest play was given in 120 cities, from Jacksonville, Fla. north to Chicago, by the same group of players secured for this circuit. Hard day, as usual, will be an important feature of the program.

Miss Nielsen's appearance, of course, will be the event of Chautauqua week. Internationally famed as a soprano, and with an enviable musical following, her Chautauqua tour promises another triumph for her remarkable career.

After various successes in light opera in America Miss Nielsen appeared in London in "The Fortune Teller," an opera created for her by Victor Herbert. Later, and in record time, she changed from a light opera favorite to a star of first magnitude in grand opera—something that no other light opera star ever has been able to accomplish. In recent years she has starred with the Boston and Metropolitan Opera companies, and at the present time is under contract with the latter organization in New York city.

Within a few weeks further announcement will be made regarding attractions secured for the 1916 Chautauqua program.

STIVERS AGAINST COX.

Portsmouth, O., February 22.—Representative E. H. Stivers of Brown county precipitated a bitter fight against Indorsing James M. Cox of Dayton a candidate for Governor at a meeting of Democrats of the Sixth Congressional district today.

Upon a vote, however, indorsement of Cox carried, Clermont, Pike, Seloto and Highland counties voting in favor and Brown and Adams counties against.

Harry E. Taylor of Portsmouth, and John Wood of Georgetown, were chosen delegates to the St. Louis convention.

The first American linotype machine in Tripoli recently was installed by an Italian newspaper.

AID THE KIDNEYS

Maysville Sufferers Should Take No Further Risk.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, laguer—why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a tested remedy is offered them?

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, act now, for gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease may set in and make neglect dangerous. Can Maysville residents demand more convincing proof than the following:

A. Sorries, locksmith, Aberdeen, O., says: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backache and when stooping, it was hard for me to straighten. Colds always settled on my kidneys. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped the trouble and my kidneys became strong."

GEORGE WASHINGTON TEA.

The hospitable home of the Misses Leo on Market street was thrown open the evening of the 22nd for a Washington Tea, given in the interest of the Sewing Society of the Central Presbyterian church. The fair entertainers were in costume, and trunks and attics had been ransacked for silks that would "stand alone" and put to shame the finery of a later day. The attractive rooms with their rich inheritance of old mahogany and cutglass, were a fitting background for the grand dames bewitching with their pinches and powdered hair and the stately gallants in periwigs and knee-breeches. Everywhere were reminders of the day and the "First American." Old Glory's folds floated above her sons and daughters and there were hatches enough to have satisfied even Carrie Nation. Historic cherries were the favored fruit, and the patriotic theme was carried out also in the delicious refreshments. Among those in costume were Miss Lee in black broadened satin and old lace as "Lady," and Mr. James B. Wood as President Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Walker and Miss Margaret Walker as the historic Adams family. Mrs. Ben Poyntz as Dolly Madison. Mrs. James B. Wood as Mistress William Payne. Miss Mary Dewees Poyntz as Nellie Custis. Miss Lettie Wood as Betsy Ross, and the Misses Stevenson as the Munroe sisters. Elizabeth Franklin, Mary Woodson Tanboen and Brent and Houston Wood were charming little men and women of the Revolutionary period. The evening was a pronounced artistic, social and financial success. —Contributed.

A SCATHING ARRANGEMENT.

Washington, D. C.—(Special Correspondence)—It is doubtful if ever before a President of the United States was subjected to so scathing an arrangement as was President Wilson by Eliza Root, in opening the New York Republican convention. Dignity, incisiveness, forceful and pitiless logic and a complete absence of violence or even extravagance made Mr. Root's indictment so terrible that the administration is today fairly writhing under it and Democrats in Congress are prone to admit, in private conversation, that the former Senator from New York has so mercilessly exposed the clay feet of this idol as to render his rehabilitation a herculean task. In a single chapter, Mr. Root laid bare the woeful inefficiency of the Democratic party, the characteristic and temperamental unfitness of Woodrow Wilson for his high office and long array of deplorable and humiliating blunders which have resulted from entrusting the government of a great nation to such incompetents. "The end part of Mr. Root's indictment is that every word of it is true," said a prominent and a lifelong Democrat. "We Democrats, however loyal, can not answer it. We must devote our efforts to trying to distract public attention from it."

WILSON HONORS MR. AND MRS. CHAMP CLARK.

What is probably the greatest war drama ever filmed, "The Battle Cry of Peace," showed to good sized crowds at the Washington Theater yesterday both afternoon and night, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was very bad.

Charles Hichman in the leading role was superb, and he was ably assisted by an all-star cast, which made the picture rise to unusual heights.

A wealth of interesting material and action upon action furnished thrills by the yard which far transcended anything an acted play could present. Taking it all in all, it was a magnificent and sensational performance.

The picture will be shown again today at this popular theater at the same prices.
